

PERSHING TROOPS MAKE GAINS ON BOTH SIDES OF RIVER MEUSE

River in the neighborhood of St. Souplet, south of Le Cateau, yesterday and took thirty prisoners, Field Marshal Haig announced in an official report to-day.

Raiding operations on several portions of the British front, notably near Salinghin-en-Weppes, southwest of Lille, are reported by Field Marshal Haig in his official statement to-day. Prisoners were taken by the British parties.

LATEST OFFICIAL REPORT

BRITISH.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Following is the report issued to-day by the British War Office:

"Yesterday afternoon an American patrol crossed the Selle, in the neighborhood of St. Souplet and brought back thirty prisoners.

"In a successful raid yesterday evening south of Salinghin-en-Weppes, twenty prisoners were taken. A few prisoners were also taken during the night by patrols on other portions of the front."

FRENCH.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—Following is the report issued to-day by the French War Office:

"During the night and in the early hours of this morning we made progress at different points on the front.

"South of the Serre we took Roulers, Barenton Cel and Monceau la Waast.

"West of Rethel we took Nanteuil sur Aisne. West of Grandpre we have progressed beyond the Aisne. We took Olisy and Ternaux with 800 prisoners."

AMERICAN.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The following communiqué from Gen. Pershing, dated yesterday, was made public to-day:

"This [Monday] morning American troops resumed the advance. North of Verdun they are now operating against positions of greatest strategic value and natural strength. To-day we passed beyond the towns of Cunel and Romagne. We have patrols in the Bois de Banthevill, and our attacking line has penetrated the positions of St. Georges and Landrest-St. Georges. About 750 prisoners have been reported."

BELGIAN.

LONDON, Monday, Oct. 14.—The text of the official statement issued at the War Office relative to the offensive in Belgium follows:

"The Flanders group of armies under the King of Belgium attacked at 5.35 o'clock Monday morning. The second Belgian army advanced about four and a half miles in the direction of Otrul, capturing the important villages of Ledeghem and Moerselle and reaching the northern outskirts of Meun.

"The Belgian army advanced also nearly five miles toward Thourout and captured the villages of Rumbke, Ieghe, Otramarck and Handaene.

"The French army attacked with the Belgian troops on both flanks and occupied Roulers as well as the villages of Devren, Hoogledde, Gits and St. Joseph. They also captured the plateau of Gits, Hoogledde and Girete. The prisoners counted exceed 8,000. Thirty-three hundred were taken by the Belgians, 2,500 by the French and 2,500 by the British. The exact number of guns taken is unknown, but six complete batteries with their teams were captured just as they were about to withdraw.

"The British, Belgian and French aviators played a great part in the battle. They bombed enemy concentrations and trains and fired their machine guns on enemy infantry. British monitors also assisted materially in the operations."

BERLIN NOW SEES ANOTHER LIGHT! APPEALS TO PARIS

Much Concerned About Bombardment of French Cities Occupied by German Troops.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 15.—The German Government has proposed to France that, in common with her Allies, France undertake to refrain from bombarding the large towns of Northern France and enter into an agreement with Germany to permit, at any rate, a portion of the population of Valenciennes to pass into the French lines, says an official statement from Berlin.

The Berlin Government, in making this proposal, represented itself as unable to prevent the eastward flight of the population of Valenciennes, owing to their fears that the Allies would bombard the town. The proposal was made through the Swiss Government.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY REPORTED TO BE NEAR DISSOLUTION

German Public Being Prepared For Break Up of Dual Monarchy.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—A Daily News despatch from Zurich filed on Sunday says:

"Yesterday's German newspapers prepare public opinion for imminent events of the gravest possible character in Austria-Hungary.

"The Stuttgarter Neus Zeitung heads its article 'Eve of Dissolution in Austria.' The same journal says that a proclamation of the independence of German Austria is expected.

"Significant silence reigns over Bohemia."

Hussarek, Premier of Austria, Reported to Have Resigned.

BASEL, Switzerland, Oct. 15.—Vienna afternoon newspapers announce that the Austrian Emperor has accepted the resignation of Baron von Hussarek, the Austrian Premier, and requested Count Silva Tarouca, Minister of Agriculture, to form a new Ministry.

This news has not yet been confirmed officially.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

DIVORCE DECISION RESERVED

H. K. T. Wright of New Gardens Makes No Contest.

Harry K. T. Wright, wealthy furniture dealer of New Gardens, L. I., did not appear in the Queens County Supreme Court to-day to contest the suit against him for divorce.

Testimony offered by Bertha Diamond, widow of Louis J. M. Cardozo, and a member of a well known Philadelphia family, H. M. Diamond, a brother of Mrs. Wright, testified that he followed her husband in his business and finally located him in Mrs. Cardozo's suite in Flushing. He said that the door of the apartment was securely locked but it took him forty-five minutes to batter it down.

Judge Cropper reserved decision.

NEWS BRIEVITIES

Walter Hines Page, former American Ambassador to Great Britain, who is ill at St. Luke's Hospital, was said to-day to be making favorable progress.

The large flour and feed mill belonging to J. Walter Hays at Riverdale, near Three Bridges, N. J., was destroyed by fire last night with an estimated loss of between $60,000 and $80,000.

Grave over recent death of her baby caused Mrs. Freda Phillips to commit suicide to-day by hanging herself in the attic of her cottage at No. 41 East Ninth Street, Flatbush.

Boys of the U. S. S. Charleston will give a ball and banquet at the Hotel Astor to-morrow night to celebrate the first "breathing space" they have had since they began conveying troops across the Atlantic a year ago last winter.

Gov. Whitman left this city for Albany this morning and will return on Thursday, Oct. 17, to address a Liberty Loan rally at the More Shippard employees.

An order to put women inmates at work making bandages was sent to eight New Jersey institutions to-day by Commissioner of Charities and Correction Lewis of Trenton.

Mrs. Margaret Olivia Sage recovered judgment to-day for $12,000 against Edward C. Osborn and Charles Hicks, as trustees for the stockholders and creditors of the Long Island Sound Company, a New Jersey corporation. The plaintiff alleges the money was due her on notes.

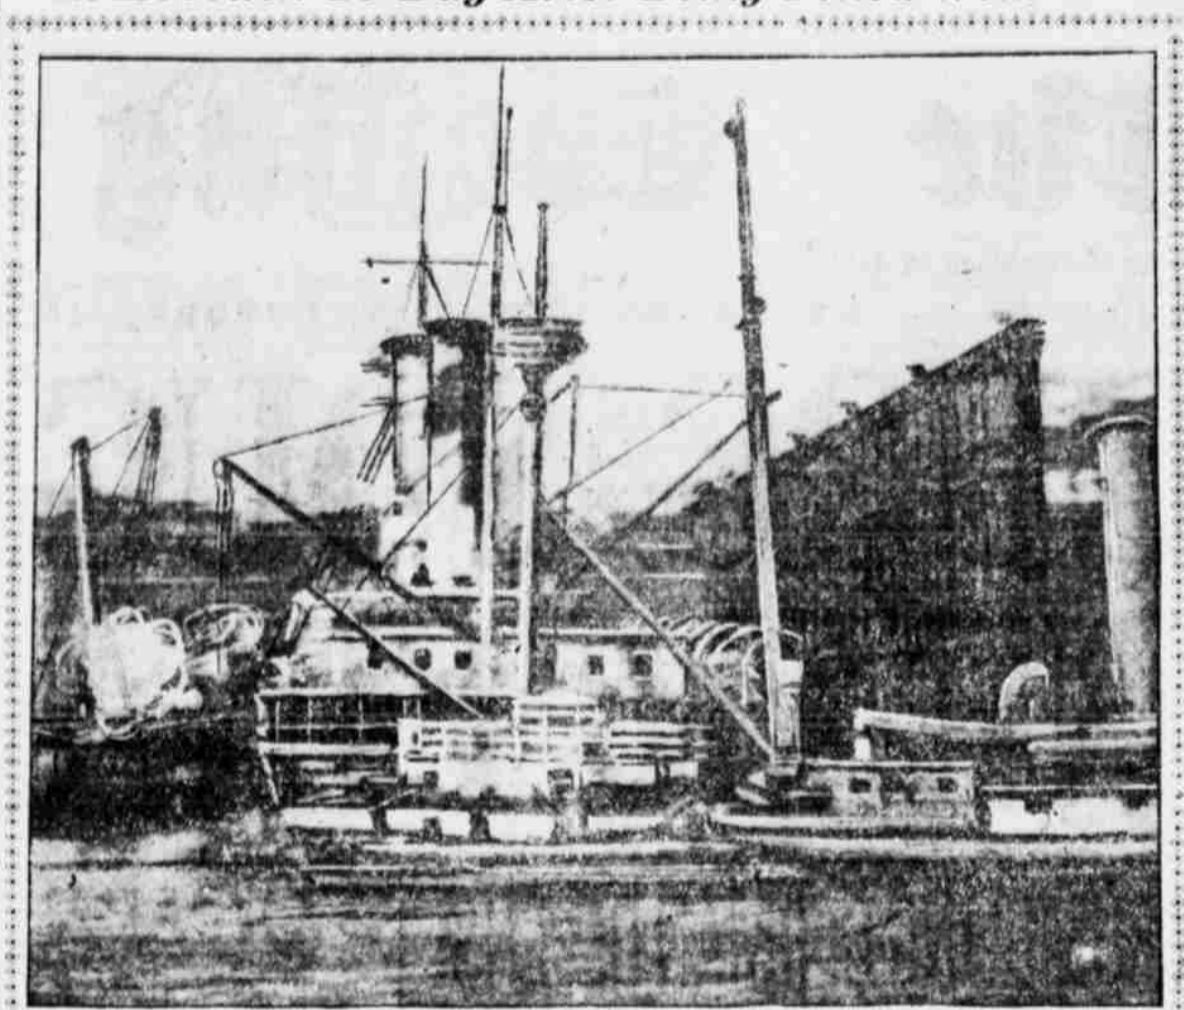

Funeral of Dr. Peters To-Night.

Funeral services for the Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters of No. 34 West 26th Street, who died Sunday, will be held at 8.30 at the funeral home, 66th Street and Broadway. He has been seriously ill since he was stricken with a stroke of paralysis.

Former Postmaster Pleads Guilty.

Clifton A. Parsons, former postmaster at Long Beach, L. I., pleaded guilty to-day to embezzling $2,500 and was remanded for sentence on Saturday by United States Judge Chatfield, in proceedings for the same offense which he had joined the army.

American Transport America Settling at Pier In Hoboken To-Day After Being Filled With Water

The American Transport America, a large steamship, is shown at a pier in Hoboken, New Jersey, being filled with water.

INVASION OR SURRENDER IS ONLY CHOICE FOR GERMANY

(Continued from First Page.)

President's other requirements. It seemed probable to officers, however, that the military board of the Supreme War Council at Versailles would be the natural agency.

The council itself is composed only of the Premiers of the Allied nations and President Wilson. The President's membership in the board was disclosed yesterday by Secretary Baker.

The military and all other boards of the council are advisory only and their recommendations must be ratified by the council to become effective.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

ALL FRANCE UNITED FOR FULL SURRENDER AS BASIS FOR PEACE

Faith in Wilson Shown by Press—Foch Relied On to Fix Terms.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—France stands firm on the Berlin peace proposition.

The people showed absolutely no excitement during the crisis of the correspondence with President Wilson. Newspapers were unanimous in the declaration that the Allies must obtain the absolute, unconditional surrender of Germany, Austria and Turkey and the fullest guarantees.

"We are living in the most tragic moment of the history of all centuries," Deputy Paul Mennier said. "One man can now decide the fate of the world. This man is worthy of his unprecedented role. All humanity has its eyes fixed upon him."

Le Presse declared, after referring to Wilson's diplomatic victory: "The floor no longer belongs to Wilson. It belongs to Generalissimo Foch, who by virtue of his office represents all the General Staffs and all the Entente belligerents. One of two things is true—either Germany must recognize its defeat and accept the terms of the armistice, or it will attempt to escape by means of getting an armistice. This guarantee is necessary for the safety of France and the world."

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To prevent any possibility of remobilization, military necessity would require allied occupation of strategic points of communication. To insure suppression of submarines, occupation of submarine bases also would be essential.

Without question, Marshal Foch, the supreme commander, and Field Commanders Gen. Pétain, Haig, Pershing and Diaz would be fully consulted and the resulting definite terms of armistice in all probability would be at once ratified and laid before Germany as the only price for respite from attack.

To safeguard the hard-won supremacy of the United States and the Allied nations it was said drastic measures would be required in case of an armistice. Should Germany, as a nation, cry "Kamerad" it must be treated in the military view substantially as the individual German soldier who surrenders is treated; it must be disarmed and guarded.

Disarmament of a nation means demobilization. To